

AGED MAN KNOCKED DOWN

W. R. Thaxton, Who Says He Lives in East
Macon, Struck by Delivery Wagon.

W. R. Thaxton, an aged man, who gave his address as East Macon, was slightly injured yesterday by being knocked down by a light delivery wagon at the corner of Third and Mulberry streets. The driver stopped in time to prevent the wheels passing over the man's body.

Mr. Thaxton was taken to the hospital and was dismissed in a short time. He had a gash over his left eye and several bruises on his body. No arrest was made.
